To Whom It May Concern:

The Certificate of Correction issued on September 13, 2011, issued in error, in that error(s) was made in identifying the patent number and/or keying text/corrections, i.e.:

The column and line number identifying location of error in patent was not printed in the issued cofc. The correction displays "Column 31, Claim 53, line 2", listing column number, claim number and line number. The correction should be shown as --Column 31, line 62 (Claim 53, line 2)--. The correction displays "Column 32, Claim 56, line 2", listing column number, claim number and line number. The correction should be shown as --Column 32, line 2 (Claim 56, line 2)--. The correction displays "Column 32, Claim 57, line 5", listing column number, claim number and line number. The correction should be shown as --Column 32, line 5 (Claim 57, line 2)--. The correction displays "Column 32, Claim 60, line 2", listing column number, claim number and line number. The correction should be shown as --Column 32, line 12 (Claim 60, line 2)--. A new certificate of correction will be issued listing the Column and line number location where error appears in the printed patent.

Therefore, a certificate of correction will be issued to correct (supersede) the Certificate of Correction containing error(s), made during preparation of the Certificate of Correction, as noted above.

No further response is required, from applicants (attorney). However, errors discovered by attorney, other than as noted and described above, should be noted on a copy of the Certificate of Correction that was issued in error, accompanied by a signed transmittal letter and submitted directed to this Branch.
